

for the Ministry of Defence to further consolidate on military components of the ministry.

2 soldiers die as female suicide bomber detonates explosive in Borno

BODUNRIN KAYODE-MAIDUGURI

A female suicide bomber, at a check-point in Konduga, after Maiduguri, the Borno State capital, detonated improvised explosive devices strapped to her body, killing herself and two soldiers in the process.

The incident, which happened on Wednesday evening in Mashimari ward of Konduga, has put all the soldiers at alert since two soldiers who were said to have been badly injured, according to sources, later lost their lives due to excessive bleeding.

The incident happened behind a camp of Internally Displaced Persons (IDP) in Konduga, about 37 kilometres from Maiduguri.

The outgoing theatre commander of Operation Iafiya Dole, Major General Lucky Irabor, on Wednesday, warned that the Boko Haram insurgents had infiltrated IDP camps all over Borno State, adding that everybody must be at alert to stop them from further havoc on the returnees and their IDPs.