

Teaching Hospital, Abuja,

5 suicide bombers die in failed attack on Maiduguri

FIVE suicide bombers, on Tuesday night, attempted to attack Mammanti village, around Jiddari Polo area of the Maiduguri metropolis, Borno State.

Soldiers, in conjunction with the Civilian Joint Task Force, Jiddari Polo, found the dead bodies of the suicide bombers when a loud explosion was heard while on patrol.

According to the Civilian JTF, dead bodies of five suicide bombers, two male and three females were discovered about four kilometres ahead of Mammanti village.

One of the bodies was mutilated following a detonated improvised explosive device while others were still fresh with injuries and IEDs strapped on their bodies.