

3 die in Enugu fuel tanker accident

JUDE OSSAI - ENUGU

TRAGEDY struck at the weekend in Enugu State when three persons died in a lone accident involving a tanker loaded with kerosene.

The truck, with registration number WAM 228 XA, was believed to be coming from Port Harcourt, but on getting to the Awkunanaw axis in Enugu, got involved in a lone accident and caught fire, leaving three persons dead, while three others were critically injured.

Confirming the accident, the Enugu State Police Public Relations Officer, Ebere Amarizu, who did not explain the cause of the accident, said, "the injured are now receiving treatment at the University of Nigeria Teaching Hospital (UNTH).

In another development, the PPRO also disclosed that the police had begun an investigation into the alleged fraudulent activities involving the Secretary to the Managing Director of the Federal Neuropsychiatric Hospital, Enugu.

The state police spokesman told newsmen that the suspect was arrested

ected hackers granted