

Man arrested with woman's head in Lagos

THE police in Lagos State have arrested a man found with a decomposing head of a woman at Imota, near Ikorodu, the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) has reported.

Sources at the State Criminal Investigation Department (SCID), Panti, told NAN in Lagos that the suspect, simply identified as Emmanuel, was arrested at the home of a native doctor who is now at large.

It was gathered that neighbours reported to the police in Imota that a foul smell was emanating from the compound of the native doctor, identified as Jamiu.

"Policemen attached to the division came to the place, combed the surrounding and discovered a human head.

"Jamiu, the native doctor, however, took to his heels when challenged, but Emmanuel was arrested and he confessed that Jamiu helped him to get the human head for protection against Badoo cult group," a police source said.

The police were on the trail of the native doctor, while Emmanuel would be charged to court soon, the source added.

Also, the State CID has arrested a man for killing another man by stabbing him on the chest during a fight at a bar in Egbeda area of the state.

"The suspect will be charged to court as soon as investigation is concluded," the source said.
