

our men in the attack, but them soon," the PPRO said.

3 killed in fresh attack in Plateau

ISAAC SHOBAYO - JOS

AS security agencies and the Plateau State government are making efforts to arrest the spate of killings in some parts of the state, another family of six were, on Wednesday, attacked in Jol village, in Riyom Local Government Area of the state, with three of them killed.

A source close to the village revealed that the family was returning from the farm when some gunmen attacked them at about 6:00 pm on Wednesday, killing two persons identified as Mr Joel Choji and Suzanna Daniel Choji on the spot, while the four others escaped with injuries.

Nigerian Tribune learnt that after the act, the gunmen escaped in a vehicle, while some good Samaritans who arrived the scene shortly after took the injured to hospital in Vom area, where the third person later died in the early hours of Thursday.

The state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), ASP Terna Tyopev, who confirmed the attack, said the police had commenced investigation into the incident, while enjoining the people of the community and the entire local government to be more vigilant.