

He, however, said the suspected kidnappers had not contacted the families of the two local government staff members to demand ransom.

He said the police would do everything possible to secure the release of the civil servants.

Student found dead in corps members' room in Ondo

In another development, a student of the College of Education, Ikere Ekiti, Ekiti State, identified as Akintunde Adegunloye, was reportedly found dead in his friends' room at the State Specialists Hospital, Ondo, Ondo State.

Adegunloye was said to have visited two of his friends who were corps members in the state.

The Ondo State Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Joseph, said the deceased left his school in Ekiti State to visit his friends who were corps members serving in the government-owned hospital in Ondo State.

Joseph explained that the cause of the death of the deceased was unknown to the police, but said the command had commenced investigation to unravel the cause of the incident.

"The deceased paid his friends a visit in Ondo, the friends are corps members serving at the hospital. We learnt that the friends got home on the fateful day and found him (deceased) dead in their room.

"We have invited the two corps members and as I speak with you, they are still with us, we are interrogating them on the matter," he said.

ll police sergeant, abduct German in Kano