

1 feared dead, LG boss, several others injured in Lagos

The ward congress to elect executives turned bloody at Ajeromi-Ifelodun area of the state as one person was feared dead while several others were injured and taken to hospital for treatment.

Though Sunday Tribune could not ascertain the cause of the conflict, it was gathered that some hoodlums were said to have disrupted the conduct of the exercise.

The council chairman was also said to have been attacked and injured in the process.

Also in Ojokoro area of the state, power tussle among contenders trying to position their preferred candidates for the House of Assembly seat in the 2019 general election was said to have led to the disruption of the ward congress.

Reports from some of the wards monitored by our correspondents showed that the exercises, which started very late in some wards in the state, went on smoothly without any hitch.

As at 3 p.m., the Electoral Panel in charge of the exercise in Epe was yet to report at various venues in the town, even as the APC chapter in Ward E of Ifako Ijaye area of the state had by 2 p.m. rounded off, electing its 25-member executive committee.

In Ward G of Agbado Oke-Odo, the APC electoral panel was still being expected as of 2:30pm, but not withstanding, party faithful were in jubilation mood and dancing to some music, while awaiting the arrival of the panel members.
