

a lady in getting her car started
PHOTO: RRS TWITTER

liable on all allegations against him, should be dismissed from the service of the university.

"The council, at its meeting of Wednesday, June 20, having considered the recommendation of the

He was suspended on April 19 by the committee constituted by the institution's management to investigate the matter, while Osagie appeared before the committee to give evidence on April 24.

7 die, 3 injured in Jigawa auto crash

SEVEN persons on Wednesday lost their lives in an auto crash along Hadejia to Kaugama road in Jigawa State.

Sector Commander of the Federal Road Safety Corps in the state, Mr Angus Ibezim, who confirmed the incident, told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) that four others sustained various degrees of injury.

He said the accident, which involved a Citroen car and tanker vehicle, occurred at about 7:00 a.m, and was caused by excessive speeding and poor visibility caused by rainfall.

Ibezim said the victims were cattle dealers and were on their way to Gaidam town in Yobe State when the accident occurred.

According to him, the car, which was supposed to carry eight persons, conveyed 11 passengers.

Ibezim further said that the corps recovered N1,216,870 million, six mobile phones, clothes and lamp belonging to the deceased, saying that the recovered money and items would be handed over to their relations.

destroyed N150m property