

2 die in auto crash in same spot

In a related development, two people, on Friday, lost their lives in another crash directly opposite the scene of Thursday's explosion

The victims of the Friday incident were occupants of a commercial Toyota Hiace bus with registration number AAA 926 XV who were coming to Lagos from Osogbo.

It was gathered that the accident occurred when a commercial bus driver who drove against traffic was trying to escape from officials of the Lagos State Traffic Management Authority (LASMA).

The vehicle reportedly had a collision with the bus which was coming from Osogbo, resulting in the death of two people.

An eyewitness who identified himself simply as Taiwo said two bodies found under the damaged vehicles were evacuated by emergency workers.

Taiwo said more people would have died in the Friday's incident but for the fact that some of the passengers in the Osogbo bus had alighted from the bus.

Officials of the Lagos State Ambulance Service, Federal Road Safety Corps, Nigeria Police and Lagos State Emergency Management Agency took part in the rescue operation.
