CONFUSION broke out at Gbangba, Ijaiye area in Abeokuta, the Ogun State capital, on Wednesday morning, when a ticketing officer working for a particular motorcyclist union allegedly killed one Ibrahim Raji with the charmed ring.

The deceased, who was a bricklayer was reported to be going to work at a site before the unfortunate happened.

The ticketing officer, identified as Sempe was said to have demanded a daily levy of N400 being charged, commercial motorcyclists.

An eyewitness, Emmanuel Dosunmu, who claimed to be an apprentice with the deceased said the suspect punched his boss when he (Raji) failed to pay the levy, having informed him that he was not a commercial motorcyclist.
