Police investigate alleged mob attack, death of suspected vandal

THE Enugu State Police Command has begun investigation into an alleged mob attack which resulted in the death of a suspected transformer vandal at Agamede-Agu Obollo-Etiti in Udenu Local Government Area of the state.

According to the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN), the command's Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), SP Ebere Ama-raizu, said in a statement, on Tuesday, that the deceased, whose identity had yet to be ascertained, was killed on July 23, at about 2:00 a.m.

"The suspect was allegedly vandalising a transformer in the area and had removed the upper part of the copper cable of the transformer when irate mob descended on him, beating him to coma.

"Police operatives who responded to the incident met the suspected vandal lying unconscious, and he was promptly rushed to a hospital at Obolloafor in Udenu Council Area for medical attention where he died," he said.
