Three suspects kill man, steal his vehicle in Gombe

ISHOLA MICHAEL - GOMBE

GOMBE State Police Command has arrested three suspects who allegedly killed a 25-year-old man, Abdulhamid Danladi, before stealing his vehicle.

Parading the suspects alongside other suspected criminals at the command headquarters, the state Commissioner of Police, Shina Tairu Olukolu, said the arrest of two of the suspects, Solomon Bagudu and Dauda Aliyu, as well as the recovery of the stolen vehicle followed an intelligence obtained by the State Intelligence Bureau (SIB), the State Criminal Investigation and Intelligence Department (SCIIB) and a team from Pindiga Police Division.

According to Olukolu, the incident occurred on March 10, on Pindiga-Tumu Road in the state.

The police boss explained that "the arrested duo revealed the identity of the principal suspect, Osioma Daniel, who was trailed to his hideout in Tulmi Village in Akko Local Government Area of the state, but managed to escape with injuries on his head.

"An army baseball cap, army camouflage shorts and a Tecno mobile phone belonging to the deceased were recovered from the suspects," the police boss said.

Also arrested was 22-year-old Usman Bello for allegedly impersonating as a policeman and in possession of police property, such as police belt, police tag and 11 copies of passport-size photographs of him in police uniform.
