another 13 people were killed by gunmen on Sunday in Jos South council area.

Nigerian Tribune learnt that the gunmen who were in two Hilux vans on Sunday swopped on a group of people relaxing in front of the hotel at Lopandet Dwei Du Area of Jos South Local Government Area of Plateau State.

It was learnt that the gunmen opened fire on the people at a close range and killed eight of them instantly while others escaped with severe injuries and also shot at people within the vicinity at random as they were trying to escape and in the process killed another five.

An eyewitness, Emmanuel Ibrahim, said before men of the Operation Safe Haven in charge of security in Plateau could get to the scene of the incident, the gunmen had bolted away adding that the incident caused a serious pandemonium in the area as residents remained indoors until the early hour of Monday.

The State Police Command in a statement signed by its Public Relations Officer, DSP Mathias Tyopev Terna, confirmed the incident adding that 11 people died in the attacked while 12 others sustained injuries.
