

was said to
was living
grandsons
ant in the

incident,
ublic Rela-
RO), Femi
hoodlums
wo women
the door
house and

Joseph said the incident was reported by one of the deceased's children who explained that her mother was killed in the night while some vital organs were also missing.

The PPRO said policemen from the town visited the scene, while disclosing that a suspect, Moses Olaniyi, who lived in the area, had been the said the gran-Mrs Ala, who was earlier arrested, had been released, but said investigation was continuing.

Also, in Delta State, the police have confirmed the murder of a 300-level student of Mass Communication at the state university in Abraka, one Miss Elizino Joshualia Ogege, by persons suspected to be cult-ists.

The 22-year-old student was earlier reported missing on November 15, at Abraka Police Station, but she was, in the early hours of last Sunday, found dead in a bush in the outskirts of Abraka.

The state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Andrew Aniamaka, in a statement, said the Commissioner of Police, Muhammad A. Mustafa, had said that the command
would leave no stone unturned towards apprehending the perpetrators of the crime.

The PPRO explained that suspects connected to the crime had been arrested and were already assisting the police in its investigation.

day. PHOTO: SYLVESTER OKORUWA.

uggled 1,570 pump-action oday

lanned with an as a serious charge with

learn@gmail.com

08189015120

- 6, 41

ima
orno gov
in book

