

ensure a hitch free celebrations.

At the same vein, the Com- celebration.

ingly.

Killings : Decomposed bodies recovered in Benue community

FOLLOWING a bloody attack on Tse-Ibor and Tse-Dzungwe communities by suspected herdsmen on Friday, the bodies of four Tiv farmers have been recovered. The corpses of late Samuel Dwem and Samuel Ukever were hurriedly buried. The other two were in bad shapes and could not be buried and was left in the bush. Since 2013, the communities have suffered several attacks from herdsmen.

Leader of the search party, Tyovenda Gbumsy, told The Nation at Ayilamo town, headquarters of Tombo ward, that the herdsmen butchered late Kondom, removed fuel from his motor cycle and set him ablaze. He called on the Federal government to protect farmers in Tombo ward who have been under attacked since 2013. He added that residents of the communities have fled their homes and are now taking refuge in Ayilamo.

From Uja Emmanuel, Makurdi

A community leader, Uke Dzungwe, while speaking with The Nation, warned that if nothing is done by security agency and federal government, food crisis would hit the entire area as farmers can no longer go to their farms for fear of being attacked or even killed while herdsmen and their cows are destroying yet to be harvested crops across the area.

Police foil robbery attempt

By Ojo Damisi

nefarious plans.

MEN of the Ondo State Police command yesterday averted a robbery attempt along Benin-Ore-Lagos highway. The incident reportedly led to the blockage of the busy road with blocks and planks by the suspected robbers. However, the timely intervention of the police prevented the robbers from carrying out their

According to reports, Policemen swiftly stormed the road and chased them away. The Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) for the State Police Command, Femi Joseph, who confirmed the incident said the police prevented the robbery as a

was ston
in th
tal M
geria
Osu
Oyo
UNI

resul
He s num
on emer
Kajo
gos
atten
Hiac
num
by or