3 die, 11 injured in Lagos/Ibadan expressway

THREE persons lost their lives while 11 others sustained various degrees of injury in a road accident when a Mazda bus with registration number FST 578 XM somersaulted near Makun City on the Lagos/Ibadan Expressway on Friday.

The Sector Commander, Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC), Ogun State, Mr Clement Oladele, who confirmed the incident, told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) in Abeokuta on Saturday that the accident was preceded by excessive speed, tyre burst and the driver's subsequent loss of control.

"Three male adults, eight female adults were injured, while one male adult and two female adults were killed in the accident," he said.

The FRSC official said that the injured victims had been taken to Idera Hospital in Sagamu, while bodies of the three people, who lost their lives had been deposited at the morgue in Olabisi Onabanjo University Teaching Hospital (OOUTH), Sagamu.

Oladele urged motorists to drive with standard tyres.

He also advised them to use their day time running lights, due to poor visibility, common in the early morning and late evening hours.
