THE police in Lagos State have begun investigations into the circumstances surrounding the death of two people, who were on Saturday found dead in a vehicle at Maryland area of the state.

The man and a woman were reportedly discovered by passers-by, who raised the alarm, prompting the invitation of policemen to the scene.

Nigerian Tribune gathered that local concoction, suspected to be herbal mixture, and alcoholic beverages were recovered from the vehicle by the police.

The state Police Public Relations officer, CSP Chike Oti confirmed the incident to the Nigerian Tribune and added that the remains of the two people had been deposited at the mortuary for autopsy.

Nigerian Tribune gathered that there was confusion on Saturday, when the bodies of the deceased persons were discovered in the vehicle.

A police source, who spoke with the Nigerian Tribune, said that "we are looking at the possibility that they were lovers, and that they slept together the previous night."

Oti, while speaking with the Nigerian Tribune, said "it actually happened on Saturday and by the time our men arrived at the scene, the bodies were already still."

"The Commissioner of Police, Zubairu Mu'azu, has directed that the case be transferred to the homicide section of the State Criminal Investigations Department, Panti."

The Lagos police spokesperson also stated that the relatives of the deceased
