Notorious Kano robber killed in gun duel

Kola Oyelere | Kano

THE KANO State Police Command has said that the operatives of Puff Adder have killed a notorious armed robber following a shootout in Rano Local Government Area of the state.

According to a statement by the Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), DSP Abdullahi Haruna, the team attached to the Police Area Command, Rano, was alerted on Friday afternoon that four armed men attacked a residence in the town where they engaged the armed robbers in a gun battle. Luck, however, was against the hoodlums when the Puff-Adder operatives gunned down one of them, while three escaped into the forest.

"As they were retreating, they abandoned a locally made pistol with three rounds of cartridges," he said.

The Command added that the gang had been terrorising Rano, Kibiya, Bunkure, Tudun Wada along Falgore forest axis for a while ago.

The Commissioner of Police said that the fleeing suspects would be tracked, identified and arrested.
