Inga said that the incident occurred on August 30 on River Kaduna at Wuya along the Bida-Mokwa Road, adding that the dead people hailed from Edati

Local Government Area of Niger.

According to Inga, the man who peddled the boat survived the accident.

The director-general noted that the bodies of the dead people had been recovered and buried.

He advised boat operators to take necessary precautions while using their boats, noting that the government had taken measures to provide life jackets for people travelling on boats.
