

Meanwhile, a young man, Abiodun Olomiye, got drowned while swimming on Saturday morning in a river in Uso town in Owo Local Government Area of the state.

It was gathered that Olomiye died before help could reach him while swimming in the river. His dead body was recovered by local swimmers.

A source said, “it was through the help of the local swimmers that his corpse was recovered after several hours of searching for him.”

When contacted the State Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) Mr. Femi Joseph, confirmed the incidents and said the investigation into the matter had commenced.

He said, “the corpse of the deceased had been recovered by the local swimmers in Uso, and he had been buried at the riverbank in line with the tradition of the town.”
