

flooding in the areas.

roads in rain boots to access causing perennial flooding thereby flooding the areas.

1-yr-old girl dies after man smashes her head on the ground

Olalekan Olabulo | Lagos

THERE was tension in Isheri-Oshun area of Lagos State over the weekend as a resident smashed the head of a one-year-old girl to the ground, which resulted in her death.

The baby, Nana Aishat Isiaka, was strapped to her mother's back when the suspect removed her and hit her head on the ground.

The state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Bala Elkana, confirmed the incident to the Nigerian Tribune in a statement signed by him on Sunday.

Elkana said: "On October 26, at about 6:50 p.m, one Alhaji Garuba Isiaka reported at the police station that on the same day, at about 6:00 p.m, while at Berger, he received a phone call from his younger brother, Alhaji Mohammad Isiaka, that one Isiaka Ayobami forcefully seized his daughter from her mother and hit her head on the ground."

Elkana said the baby's head was shattered as a result and she died on the spot.

He said the suspect was almost lynched by angry mob in the area but for the timely intervention of the police.

The PPRO said the suspect would be charged to court for murder.

Ex-convict, others arrested for robbery, cultism