

Home > Latest News >

Gunmen Kill Security Guard At Mining Site In Osun

By Oluwole Ige, Osogbo

On Nov 10, 2019

LATEST NEWS

Gunmen on Friday night allegedly shot dead a night security guard on a mining site located at Aba-Aagun village, via Itagun in Osu of Atakumosa East Local Government Area of Osun State, Sunday Tribune gathered.

Security source told Sunday Tribune that the victim, a 35-year-old from Delta State, was Emmanuel Moses.

Moses, who worked with Oodua Mining Site in Osu, was shot in the chest by the gunmen around 8.30 p.m. on Friday night.

---

”

ALSO READ: Education: Veritable tool for combating crime — Bauchi First Lady

---

According to the source, “an empty cartridge was recovered at the scene of the incident, while the victim was confirmed dead by doctors at the Obafemi Awolowo University Teaching Hospital Complex (OAUTHC), Ile-Ife.”

When contacted, the Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) for Osun State Police command, Mrs Folasade Odoro, confirmed the incident.

“The corpse of the victim had been deposited at the morgue of OAUTHC for autopsy while investigation to apprehend the perpetrators has commenced immediately,” she said.

Nigerian Tribune

Atakumosa

gunmen

Home – Breaking News In Nigeria Today – Tribune Online   About Us   Contact Us   Tribune TV

Disclaimer   Privacy   Tribune Advertisement Rates

---

© 2019 - Tribune Online. All Rights Reserved.