

Elkana, while confirming operations operated by one Adesuyi nine policemen, firefight- tions were still ongoing.

Man drowns while swimming at National Stadium in Lagos

Olalekan Olabulo | Lagos

A 26-year-old man has drowned while swimming inside the swimming pool of the National Stadium in Surulere, Lagos State.

The state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Bala Elkana, confirmed the incident to the Nigerian Tribune, adding that the police were already investigating the incident.

Elkana said on November 17, at about 6:10 p.m, the police received a distress call that one Sodiq Yusuf allegedly got drowned while swimming in the National Stadium swimming pool.

"A team of policemen was mobilised to the scene, and the victim was rushed to the Randle General Hospital in Surulere, where he later died.

"The body was, thereafter, deposited at the Mainland General Hospital morgue, Yaba for autopsy, while investigation is ongoing."