

Suspected cultists kill one in Ilorin

Biola Azeez | Ilorin

SUSPECTED secret cult members have reportedly killed a young man at Saw Mill area of Ilorin metropolis during a clash with some youths in the area.

Nigerian Tribune gathered that the victim of the clash, identified as Wasiu, was killed by a stray bullet allegedly fired by a cultist.

It was learnt that the suspected cultists, who were always forcing residents of the area to part with their valuables like phones, cash, among others, were challenged by one Fatai.

However, in a bid to 'teach' Fatai a lesson for daring them, the suspects trailed him to his house at Saw Mill Garage area.

According to an eyewitness, the cultists didn't meet Fatai at home and this infuriated them, and they began shooting sporadically and a stray bullet hit the victim in the head.

It was gathered that the deceased was buried on Wednesday according to Islamic rites.

The state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), DSP Ajayi Okasanmi, confirmed the killing.
