

legislature is at the risk of being strangled because the normalcy return to the party, enjoined political gladiators that will abandon F.D. and warned.

Warri based Pastor dies in his Anambra home after prayers

Michael Ovat | Awka

A pastor based in Warri, Delta State, Richard Ifeanyi Obi who came to his native home in Awka, Anambra State to perform family deliverance, prayers and cleansing was found dead in his house after performing the cleansing prayers.

A statement by the spokesperson of Anambra state police command, SP Haruna Mohammed in Awka, on Friday, said "one Pastor Richard Ifeanyi Obi who came from Warri to Anambra State to do family prayers in his house, was found lying lifeless in the room he slept."

According to him, "On the 18/2/2020 at about 4:30pm, one Ikechukwu Uchendu of No. 5 Onuorah Street Amaenyi Awka reported at the Central Police Station Awka that one Pastor Richard Ifeanyi Obi who came from Warri to perform family prayers in his house was found lying lifeless in the room he slept" he said.

He said, following the report, police detectives attached to CPS Awka visited the scene, photographed the victim and rushed him to the hospital where he was certified dead by the medical doctor.

Mohammed also said his Corpse has been deposited at Amaku hospital mortuary for autopsy.

He added that the Commissioner of Police John B. Abang, has ordered a full investigation to ascertain circumstances surrounding the incident.

...tolerance for female