It stated that there was no casualty and no loss of equipment on side of the troops during the firefight which was won by the gallant troops and assured that the Armed Forces of Nigeria, AFN, would remain resolute and highly committed to ending the Boko Haram insurgency.

The Military appealed to the general public to continue to provide timely and credible information for the enhancement of the operations towards wiping out the insurgents' activities in the region.

Abba Kyari And Koronu People In COVID-19 Nigeria

THE death of President Muhammadu Buhari's Chief of Staff, Abba Kyari, last Friday, like the death of any mortal, calls for sober reflection. May God grant the repose of his soul. However, for all of us—politicians, those controlling the levers of political power, lowly-placed people and humanity in entirety—the major lesson therein... Read full story

Will The Media Houses Survive COVID-19?

THE people are the only censors of their governors: and even their errors will tend to keep these to the true principles of their institution. To punish these errors too severely would be to suppress the only safeguard of the public liberty. The way to preserve these irregular interpositions of the people is to give them full... Read full story

COVID-19: Businesses Crumble, Owners Count Losses

AT the beginning of the New Year, many Nigerian business owners had drawn well-calculated work-plan to achieve bigger results in 2020 than the previous year. Based on these plans, many of them had made financial projections of huge profits and dreamt of smiling to the bank on a daily basis... Read full story

Covid-19:Time For Africa Health Organisation

The pandemic of Covid -19 is by default redefining the term Global Village which is a modern definition of Planet Earth or Planet Water. Global tells us we are connected: 9the air in and around us and the waters lapping our continents and the trade networks from all these. 'Village' tells us how humbling this reality of oneness... Read full story
