

8 reportedly killed in fresh attacks on Kaduna villages

FRESH attacks by gunmen on three villages in Kajuru Local Government Area of Kaduna State have left no fewer than eight people dead and many others injured.

The communities are Idanu Makyali and Bakin-Kogi.

Several houses and farmlands were reportedly burnt down during the attacks.

The latest attacks comes less than 24 hours after 15 people were killed and five others injured at Gonna-Rogo village, also in Kajuru Local Government Area.

Although the Kaduna State police command is yet to confirm the latest attacks, an indigene of the area told Channels Television that the attacks occurred in Idanu and Makyali Bakin-Kogi communities.

He said that the gunmen, numbering over 100, invaded the villages and started shooting sporadically at people's houses.

According to the source, the attacks on Bakin Kogi and Idanu communities reportedly took place on Tuesday at about 7:00 p.m., while that of Makyali community occurred at about 7:00 a.m. on Wednesday.

Following the fresh attacks, residents of the three communities were reported to have fled to other neighbouring villages.
