

Bandits kill district head in Katsina

SUSPECTED bandits have killed the district head of Yantumaki community in Danmusa Local Government Area (LGA) of Katsina State, Alhaji Abu Atiku, the News Agency of Nigeria

(NAN) has reported.

The state Police Public Relations' Officer (PPRO), SP Gambo Isah, disclosed this in a statement on Monday in Katsina.

Isah said that the attackers invaded the area on Sunday at about 11:55 p.m. with AK-47 rifles.

He said that they attacked the residence of the 60-year-old district head and shot him dead.

The PPRO added that the attackers also shot his security guard, Gambo Chakau, and fled into the forest.

He explained that the victims were rushed to the Danmusa General Hospital for treatment, where the district head was confirmed dead.

According to Isah, the security guard is responding to treatment.

Suspected bandits also attacked some communities in Batsari LGA of the state, killing the council's All Progressives Congress (APC) chairman.
