2 Bandits kill 9 in fresh Kaduna attack

Muhammad Sabiu | Kaduna

BANDITS, on Wednesday morning, stormed Tudu village in Kajuru Local Government Area of Kaduna State and killed nine persons.

There had been series of attacks in some communities in the area in recent times.

A source, Yohanna Michael, told the Nigerian Tribune that in the latest incident, the hoodlums stormed the village at about 5:00 a.m and shot sporadically.

Michael said the hoodlums shot at those who tried to run for safety, killing nine people in the process.

The chairman of Kajuru Local Government, Mr Cafra Caino, in a statement, confirmed the killing of the nine persons, adding that: "We have once again been set back in our confidence-building effort and peace engagements after Tudu village in Agwala Dutse general area was attacked this morning.

"It is confirmed that nine lives were lost in the attack; a detailed inventory of casualties is being taken."

Caino noted that but for the timely intervention of security operatives, the casualty figures would have been higher.

"My heart goes out to all the families affected; may God grant the souls of the victims eternal rest.

"The position of Kajuru LGA remains that all communities must recourse to the law as against engaging in killings and reprisals."
