

10 mourners, motorcyclist burnt to death in Kano auto crash

Kola Oyelere | Kano

TEN mourners who were on their way to pay a condolence visit to a family in Minjibir, Kano State from Zangon Daura, Katsina State were burnt to death when a motorcyclist conveying a jerry can of petrol crashed into the bus they were travelling in on Thursday.

An eyewitness, Malam

Yahya Ibrahim, said the incident occurred at Sha'iskawa, Dambatta along Kazaure-Kano Road at about 7:09 a.m.

Malam Ibrahim said the vehicle and motorcycle immediately caught fire following the impact of the crash and the passengers burnt to death.

Another source who witnessed the incident, Bello Yau, confirmed that the passengers were from Zangon Daura in Katsina State and were on their way to pay a condolence visit to a family in Minjibir in Kano State.

It was gathered that the driver of the bus and a man seated at the front passenger's seat jumped out while the remaining eight women and two children at the back of the vehicle were burnt to death.

The motorcyclist, it was also gathered, was also burnt to death.

The Principal Fire Superintendent and spokesperson of the Kano State Fire Service, Sa'idu Muhammad Ibrahim, confirmed the incident.

Ibrahim said fire service personnel had put out the fire and had taken the casualties to the morgue of the Dambatta General Hospital.
