

Asked about Barakat's killing, he said an investigation into the incident was ongoing.

19-year-old Barakat had been raped and killed by yet-to-be-identified persons in her home last Monday.

"A suspect is still in our cell assisting the police in our investigation.

"We are working to make sure that those others in connection with the incident are arrested and prosecuted accordingly.