

Bandits kill 2 herders, rustle 103 cows in Kogi

Yekini Jimoh | Lokoja

SOME suspected gunmen have attacked a Fulani settlement at Osuku village in Koton-Karfe, Kogi Local Government Council of Kogi State, killing two herdsman and stealing 103 cows.

The Ohimegye of Igu -Kotonkarfe, Alhaji Abdulrazaklsah Koto, who disclosed this on Saturday said that he received a call from the chief of Fulanis around 11:23 pm on Thursday that bandits had attacked their settlement.

He said he immediately mobilised vigilante members to go after the bandits and they were able to recover some cows.

He stressed the need for a military base along the Abuja-Lokoja highway.

The governor's Senior Special Assistant on Security Matters, Abdulkarim Isah, confirmed the incident and said he also mobilized a security team to recover the rustled cows.