Alphonsus Agborh | Asaba

A boy, Gbenga Owolabi, was last Sunday killed after a fence collapsed on him during a downpour at Afiesere community in Ughelli North Local Government Area of Delta State.

The victim, who concluded his West African School Certificate Examinations (WASCE) last week, met his untimely death while returning home from a hospital where he had gone to give food to his younger sister who was on admission for appendicitis.

The deceased was passing by the fence when it suddenly collapsed on him.

Sympathisers tried to rescue the boy, but the impact of the accident was huge, thereby, leading to his instant death.

Efforts to confirm the incident from the state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), DSP Onome Onome-wakpoyeya, however, proved abortive.
