

Father Beheads 5-Yr-Old Son In Osun

By Adeolu Adeyemo - Oso... On Oct 27, 2020

METRO

THE Osun State police command is now on the trail of a man, Albert (surname withheld), who allegedly beheaded his five-year-old son in Gbongan area in Ayedaade Local Government Area of the state.

The father, who is an auto mechanic, was said to have killed the boy in his mother's house located at Oke-Oje area in the early hours of Monday.

It was gathered that the cries of the mother of the boy alerted residents to the development.

A source said the body of the child was taken to the police station in the town before it was deposited at the mortuary of the Obafemi Awolowo University Teaching Hospital Complex, Ile-Ife.

Speaking on the incident, spokesperson of the state police command, ASP Yemisi Opalola, said the police were already investigating the crime.

She said that the police were now searching for the perpetrator of the act, just as she pledged that he would be apprehended and brought to book.

YOU SHOULD NOT MISS THESE HEADLINES FROM NIGERIAN TRIBUNEShooting Of #EndSARS Protesters Will Close Window To Peace, Obasanjo Warns Buhari

Former President Olusegun Obasanjo has reacted to the recent shooting of unarmed #EndSARS protesters at Lekki tollgate, warning President Muhammadu Buhari that the shooting of protesters will close the window to peace.

Wale Oke Decries Lekki Killings, Says Incident May End Nigeria

The national deputy president of the Pentecostal Fellowship of Nigeria (PFN) and presiding bishop of the Sword of the Spirit Ministries, Ibadan, Dr Wale Oke, has expressed sadness over the Tuesday killing...