

IBEDC commiserates with families of 2 persons electrocuted in Ibadan

By Adewale Oshodi

THE Ibadan Electricity Distribution Company (IBEDC) has commiserated with families of two persons electrocuted along the Iwo-Adogba road of Oyo State last Thursday.

The deceased, an okada rider, Mr Oladeji Olatunji-Kango, and his passenger,

Mrs Kemi Adegoke, were said to have died after electric wire fell on them.

But in a statement issued by its Chief Operating Officer on Saturday, John Ayodele, IBEDC said it has initiated moves in a bid to get to the root of the incident.

The statement reads in part: "The management of Ibadan Electricity Distribution Company Plc. hereby deeply commiserates with the families of Mr Oladeji Olatunji Kango and Mrs Kemi Adegoke who died as a result of an electrical accident that happened along Iwo/Adogba Road, Oyo State.

"We are currently working with families of the deceased at this difficult period to help provide some measure of succour.

"Investigations have begun to ascertain the facts of the case, while all necessary protocols and reports to the regulatory authorities have been initiated.

"Our teams of engineers are already carrying out safety routine maintenance to forestall such occurrences."

Click here for more options for subscription to