

14-year-old drowns in swimming pool in Ogun

THE Ogun State police command has confirmed the death of a 14-year-old boy, Samson Folagbade, who drowned in a hotel swimming pool in Sango area of the state on Christmas day.

The state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Abimbola Oyeyemi, confirmed the incident to Channels Television via the telephone on Sunday.

He said the remains of the deceased had been deposited at a morgue for investigation on the cause.

Following the teenager's death, some youths in the area had threatened to vandalise the hotel.

However, the prompt response from police operatives brought the situation under control.
