

be ascertained.

Hoodlums hack factory worker to death in Kano

Kola Oyelere | Kano

HOODLUMS in the early hours of Monday, stormed Kurna community in Kano metropolis and hacked one Idris Salisu Goma, a factory worker, to death.

A source, who preferred anonymity, said the victim, Goma, worked with a fertiliser company in Ungoggo Local Government Area of Kano.

The source said after the attack, "we tried to rush him to the Murtala Muhammad Specialist Hospital, but he had lost so much blood and he gave up the ghost before we reached the hospital.

"In the past few days, hoodlums have been terrorising residents of the community."

The motive for the attack was yet to be known as of the time of filing in this report.