

news

Female corps member kills lover in Akwa Ibom

Iniobong Ekponta | Uyo

A female corps member currently serving in Akwa Ibom State has allegedly hacked her boyfriend to death with a machete.

It was learnt that the corps member, who hails from Enugu State, was caught on Sunday morning at about 9:30 a.m. along Abak Road by Afaha-Offot area in Uyo, the state capital by angry youths while trying to scale the fence of the compound after allegedly committing the crime.

It was gathered that the mob stripped the lady naked and subjected her to serious beating before returning her to the spot where the lifeless body of the man she allegedly hacked to death laid.

According to an eyewitness, "she inflicted machete cuts on the young man who she went out with.

"Some motorcyclists who live around the neighbourhood said the lady had been sending them to buy Indian hemp for her since she was deployed to Akwa Ibom for her National Youth Service Corps (NYSC)."

The suspect has been taken to the police station for further interrogations.

When contacted on Monday, the state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), SP Odiko Macdon, confirmed the incident.