

Baby, 3 others die in Delta auto crash

Alphonsus Agborh | Asaba

Government Area of Delta state.

A new born baby and three other persons on Thursday, reportedly died in a fatal motor accident which occurred on the Asaba-Ogwashi-Uku Expressway, close to ADP in Ibusa, Oshimili North Local

It was not ascertained immediately whether the mother of the baby survived or not.

Six others were critically injured.

The state commander of Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC), Mr Uchechukwu Wihioka, who confirmed the casualties attributed the cause of the road mishap that occurred to overspeeding.

Nigerian Tribune reports that the accident involved a truck owned by Rodinna

Fast Food, which was carrying provisions, and a commercial bus fully loaded with passengers.

As a result of the ongoing construction work on the road, motorists make use of one lane, which has resulted in several accidents.
