At least, one person reportedly lost his life while four others sustained various degrees of injuries in a ghastly lone motor accident that occurred along Gbongan-Ibadan expressway road in Osun State, on Monday.

The accident involved a navy blue Toyota Sienna car with registration number, WWD 172 AA, whose driver lost control while on top speed and somersaulted several times before landing in a bush on the roadside.

The Commander, Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC), Osun Sector Command, Kudirat Ibrahim, made this known in a statement signed and made available by the Command's spokesperson, Mrs Agnes Ogungbemi in Osogbo.

According to her, the accident which occurred at about 9:30 am of the day, involved 11 persons, six of whom were males, four females, and one female child, and that the incident was caused by over speeding and non-compliance with road traffic regulations by the road user.

She however hinted that the remains of the deceased had been deposited at the Obafemi Awolowo University Teaching Hospital (OAUTH), Ile-ife while the other injured persons are currently being attended to medically in the same hospital.

Killer Herdsmen: Untold Story Of Ibarapa's Worst Nightmare + VIDEOS

“Please do not talk to my father. He is yet to come to terms with the death of his son. It is the most tragic experience. How does one quantify the loss of a dear brother? My brother was killed like an animal by two herdsmen. His offence was that he asked them to drive their cows off his already cultivated farmland,” Bisi Olaosepin, whose brother was hacked to death, struggled to hold back his tears as he relayed to Sunday Tribune the horrible experience that culminated in the passage of his brother...Alleged fraud: Arraignment of former Aviation Minister, Stella Oduah, stalled
