

Accident Claims 6 In Delta

By Alphonsus Agborh |As... On Feb 24, 2021

METRO

About six people lost their lives when a lorry laden with passengers and goats was involved in a lone accident in Agbor, Delta State, on Tuesday.

Some goats were also killed while others were injured during the accident.

Nigerian Tribune learnt that the truck coming from the Northern part of the country, suddenly had a brake failure close to the popular Uromi junction, Asaba- Benin Expressway in Boji Boji urban of Agbor before screeching to a halt.

An eyewitness account said some of the passengers jumped to death when it became obvious that the driver had lost control of the vehicle.

When contacted, the state Commander of Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC), Mr Uchechukwu Wihioke, confirmed the accident.

YOU SHOULD NOT MISS THESE HEADLINES FROM NIGERIAN TRIBUNE

Nigeria's COVID-19 Infections, Recoveries, Deaths Dropped Last Week

Nigeria recorded a slight reduction in the number of COVID-19 infections, recoveries and deaths last week, Tribune Online analysis shows.

Last week (February 14 to 20), 5,849 new cases were reported in the country, the lowest in seven weeks.

The last time Nigeria recorded such a low figure was in the December 27 to January 2 week, when it reported 5,681 cases...

FG Owes Varsity Workers Over N150bn Earned Allowances

The Federal Government is owing the university workers, under the National Association of Academic Technologists (NAAT), the Senior Staff Association of Nigerian Universities (SSANU) and the Non-Academic Union of Universities and Associated Institutions (NASU), over N150 billion earned allowances...Senate screens service chiefs designate
