

Bandits kill eight in renewed attacks in Kaduna

Muhammad Sabiu | Kaduna

areas of Kaduna State.

The state Commissioner for Internal Security and Home Affairs, Samuel Aruwan, in a statement issued on Wednesday, disclosed that at Kan Hawa Zankoro, near Ungwan Yako in Chikun Local Government

Area, armed bandits shot at a vehicle which then somersaulted, leading to the death of six persons, while four others were injured.

Those who lost their lives in the crash were listed as Aisha Bello, Uwaliya Alhaji Shehu, Ramatu Sani, Muhammad Shehu, Aminu Ibrahim and Ibrahim Abdu, while those injured are Zainab Alhaji Usman, Surayya Bello, Khalifa Sani and Ushe Sani.

The statement said in another incident that armed bandits attacked locals at Iburu in Kajuru Local Government Area and killed one Amos Yari.

Furthermore, armed bandits invaded Hayin Kanwa village, Fatika district in Giwa LGA, and shot dead one Alhaji Sule, a businessman in the area after he resisted attempts to kidnap him.

Governor Nasiru El-Rufai received the reports with sadness, and prayed for the repose of the souls of those slain, just as he sends his condolences to their families. He also wished the injured speedy recovery."

EIGHT persons were reported killed while four others sustained injuries following bandits' attacks on Chikun, Giwa and Kajuru local government