

10 die in Kwara auto crash on Sallah day

Biola Azeez | Ilorin

TEN people have reportedly died in a lone auto crash involving an 18-seater commercial Hiace bus on Tuesday in Kwara State.

Nigerian Tribune gathered that the accident occurred at a location called Iyemoja, along the Olooru-Okolowo area, on the Ilorin-Jebba expressway in the Moro Local Government Area.

The crash, which was reportedly caused by speed violation, occurred at about 4:00 p.m.

The state's sector commander of the Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC), Jonathan Owoade, who confirmed the incident, said other victims of the crash suffered varying degrees of fracture injuries.

He gave the registration number of the commercial vehicle as LND 742 XK, just as he added that the rescue team took the injured people to Ayo Hospital, Okolowo and the state's General Hospital, Ilorin for medical attention.

The FRSC boss also said that the corpses had been deposited at the morgue of General Hospital, Ilorin, and commended officers of the Nigeria Police for assistance rendered during the incident.

Owoade also cautioned drivers against excessive speeding, saying that they should obey all traffic regulations and be mindful of other road users.
