

Gunmen strike again in Imo, behead two persons

Johnkennedy Uzoma |
Owerri

TWO persons have been beheaded at Okporo Orlu in Orlu Local Government Area of Imo State by some yet-to-be identified persons.

The two family men were said to have gone to sleep on Tuesday in their houses only for their heads to be found dumped in the middle of the road the next morning.

Okporo community was instantly thrown into confusion following the discovery of the two heads which were deposited in the middle of the road linking the Okporo-Nnempi axis.

A family friend of one of the victims who did not want to be mentioned said that he was with the man in the evening of Tuesday and after taking his supper with his children, he went to bed.

The source said that he was shock and when he was called by a relation early in the morning (Wednesday) that two heads were dumped in the middle of the road.

He added that on getting to the scene, he met a crowd and they immediately organised themselves to carry out a search for the bodies.