

Police arrest three suspects linked to murder of chef in FCT

Lawrence Bajah | Abuja

Operatives of the Federal Capital Territory (FCT) police command have arrested three suspects in connection with the death of popular Nigerian chef, Mr. Vincent Eluagu Chukwuemeka, popularly known as Chef Emeka.

According to the FCT Commissioner of Police, Babaji Sunday, investigations by the police team led to the arrest of three male suspects for their complicity in the crime.

Babaji said: "Investigations by the homicide section of the command's Criminal Investigation Department (CID) clearly revealed how the suspects gruesomely murdered the victim in cold blood."

The FCT police boss, while parading the suspects in Abuja, condoled with the family and friends of the deceased, just as he assured that the suspects would be charged to court upon completion of investigation.
