

Four killed in separate accidents in three days in Bauchi

Ishola Michael | Bauchi

FOUR persons were killed in different auto accidents that occurred between Sunday and Tuesday in Bogoro Local Government Area of Bauchi State.

1 Nigerian Tribune gathered that on Sunday, December 26, an okada rider, identified as Nenfort, a resident of Jangyar village, lost his life in an accident while conveying his sister to Gyara.

The sister, whose wedding was billed to take place on Tuesday, December 28, sustained a leg fracture, but despite her condition, the wedding still held.

A friend of the deceased, James, while speaking, said: "That Sunday morning, I spoke to Nenfort to take me to Lafiya Sara, but he declined, pleading that he wanted to go to church.

"I was at home when a friend told me about the accident and I could not stop sorrowing. May your soul rest in peace, Nenfort."

2 As the wedding was ongoing on Tuesday, James added that: "We received a sad news that two young men were also found dead in Samiya village.

"Miss Ruth John, a resident of Ndukum, and Mr Wulumbu, who just came from Lagos, were found dead on Tuesday."

According to unconfirmed report, the two were said to have been hit by a vehicle after they attended a wedding ceremony and were on their way home.

3 James added that: "As if it is not enough, report also indicated that a woman in Tudun Wada died as a result of another accident yesterday [Monday]. This is really not good days. May God comfort the families."