Suspected herdsmen attack Benue community, kill woman

Johnson Babajide | Makurdi

Makurdi that the suspected herders attacked the woman who had gone to her farm to get firewood.

The source said there was no prior provocation that could have warranted the killing of the woman.

Chairman of Guma Local Government Area, Caleb

Aba, confirmed the incident on Thursday when contacted on the phone.

Aba explained that some gunmen suspected to be herdsmen waylaid the woman on her way home from the farm and shot her dead.

The incident, he said, occurred at about 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday.

Aba said: "The woman had gone to a nearby bush to fetch firewood when the gunmen accosted her while returning home and shot her dead."

Efforts to get the state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Sewuese Anene, were not successful as she did not answer calls made to her mobile phone.

GUNMEN suspected to be herdsmen on Wednesday shot dead a middle-aged woman at Yelewata community in Guma Local Government Area of Benue State.

A source from the area told the Nigerian Tribune in
