OPERATIVES of the Kogi State police command and hunters have killed two suspected kidnappers while collecting ransom around Abobo community from relatives of their victims. It was gathered that following intelligence gathering, the hunters in Okehi Local Government Area of the state ambushed the kidnappers, who came out in Abobo area behind Nigerian Iron Ore Mining Company, Itakpe to collect the ransom demanded before they could release their victims. Two of the three kidnappers were killed in the process, while one escaped into the bush with gunshot wounds with the captives freed in the process. The Divisional Police Officer of Okehi Local Government Area, Mr Ovanja Yakubu said men of the Nigerian Police in his division had been drafted to join the hunters to trail the third kidnapper.
