

Jungle justice: Man jumps, dies trying to escape being killed by mob

By Rukiyat Bakare

A man, suspected to be a kidnapper on tuesday jumped to his death attempting to escape being killed by an angry mob in Molete area of Ibadan, Oyo State.

According to an eyewitness, the supposed mentally deranged man was beaten and was about being set ablaze on the Molete flyover after he was sighted exchanging brown envelop with a private car driver.

In a bid to escape, he jumped from the fly over bridge but died from the injury sustained.

The eyewitness who preferred anonymity stated that some items were recovered from the deceased which prompted the attack by the mob.

He added that the items include a cheque of N7,000,000, an iPhone and a cutlass.
