

Housewife, maid, two children die in Kebbi fire outbreak

3

Ayodele Ajoge | Birnin-Kebbi

A housewife, two children and their housemaid have reportedly lost their lives in an early morning fire outbreak in Gwazange community of Arugungu Emirate Council of Kebbi State.

The governor of Kebbi State, Abubakar Atiku Bagudu, who paid on-the-spot visit to scene of the incident, condoled with Al-haji Saidu Muhammad Arugungu, a business tycoon whose family died in the inferno.

Bagudu prayed for the repose of the victims' souls and asked God to grant the bereaved husband and families the fortitude to bear the irreparable loss.

In a related development, the governor also visited the the Emirate Primary and Secondary Schools gutted by fire some days back, promising to reconstruct the damaged blocks. No live was lost in the incident.